WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20, 1862.

The Memphis Appeal.

PUBLISHED Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly JOHN R. MCCLANAHAN...... BERJAMIN P. DILL,

Under the firm and style of MCCLANAHAN & DILL, To whom all inters on brahmes, or otherwise, should be addressed.

Terms of Subscription. Daily per month...... Tri Weekly per month.

paily Rates of Advertising.

For one square of ten lines or less, one insertion. $1.00 To arms I to arms I ye gallant braves, defenders of your

MISCELLANEOUS. NOTICE: HEADQUARTERS ID DISTRICT,

VICKSBURG, July 18, 1862. S NOTICE is hereby given to all percers whe are and ject to the action of the Comacript Act, that these who volunteer without waiting to be survived under the law, will be allowed to select their own company and regiment, from their State from among the several corps of this Brigads, composed of the following regi-First Regiment Louisiana Artillery-Colonel C. A.

tlighth Battalion Loui lana Artillery-Lieut, Colonel W. Pinkney. Pourth Regiment Louisiana Volunteers—Colonel H. W. Allen.

Twenty-seventh Regiment Louisiana Volunteers—Col. L. D. Marka.
Twenty-eighth Regiment Louisiana Volunteers—Col. Third Regiment Mississippi Volunteers-Gol. T. A.

Sixth Battallan Missledppi Volunteers-Lient-Col. J. W. Balfour, By command of Brig.-Gen. M. L. SETTH.

J. P. GRIMES,
A. A. General.

SPECIAL ORDER No. 23.

HEADQUARTERS WITHERS LIGHT AR-THACKRY, REMINENT NEAR VICKEBURG, Aug. 4, 1862. NOTICE is bereby given to all members of this regt ment absent without proper authority, soldiers everstaying their leaves of absence, soldiers who have been sent off sick and have failed to present correspond of disability, signed by army surgeons, who have been rightly appointed, commissioned, or who have taken the eath of other, or certificates and affidavits from re-Communities should spurn from their midst those who lank a sufficiency of soldierly pride, or should have for gotten their cain to serve their country honesely and summer pastime of digging holes, and dying sauthrally. On the return of all such persons, whether voluntarily or otherwise, they will be dealt with in an excellence with army regulations. This notice is intended.

There was one chap with an illuminated nose, who attracted my particular attention by land. wise to present offenders. No person belonging to this regiment will be allowed to procure substitutes except in the most particular and torgent eases, as those persons able to do duty as bired substitutes ought to have quies progress?" patriotian enough to do duty as volunteers and those stibut this requisite are not wasted in this regiment take a powder which the surgeon had left with him. "We've just struck a large vein of typhoid him. "We've just struck a large vein of typhoid fice until properly discharged by proper authority.

By order of JAMES P. PARKER,

Ool. Comm JAS. J. CALLOWAY. (OFFICIAL.) BEADQUARTERS-INT DISTRICT, DEPART-

General Orders No. 6.

TARGIPAROA, LA., July 12, 1802.

Marshal has been appointed, or where, from other eir-cumciances, slaves arrested cannot be brought in trial, they will be taken before the nearest Provost Marshal, who is authorized and required to take ecguirance of the case, and properly in all respects as though the ar-rest had been mide in his own parish or county.

By command of Brg. Gen. Running.
L. D. SANDIDON, C. S. A.,
20-likewiw A. A. A. and Inspector General

OFFICIAL BEADQUARTERS-IST DISTRICT, DEPART ) General Orders No. 7.

THE CO SURIPTS is the parishes of East and West Felleinna and East Bason Rouge, will assem ble without delay at 0 by Branch, near Clinton, and separate Col. Presion Fond, commanding camp of in Washington will assemble without delay at Tangipaho, and report to Lieut. Col. Sam Boyd commanding.

Hi The conscripts in the parishes of St. Tammany and Livingson will assemble without delay at Poschagun will assemble without delay at Tangipaho, said:

"In purity of meral tone, my hero is worthy the descendants of 1776."

who came under the provisions of the conscript law have not had the apparamity of compliance with its requirements, and now that exmps of instruction are specially designated under competent commanders, they will repair to them at unce and piace themselves is the front ranks of their country's defenders.

V. If, however, from unforced strengthness, the extraordinary speciacle should present their to the eyes.

Strategy Hall, my boy, is a fine airy hospital areas, the extraordinary speciacle should present their to the eyes.

By command of Brig Gen Ruggles.
L. D. SANDIDGE, C. R. A.,
jy28 Tawley A. A. and Inspector-General.

ETTERS of administration upon the estate of John J F. Colleman, late of Lafayette county, Mississippi described, having been granted to the undersigned at the April term, 1800, of the Probate Court of said escary man of America. Comfortably stretched upon command retaliation for outrages committed essent are hereby notified to exhibit the same and have then registered in the manner and within the time pre | which a strict account had been kept, with a spired confidence throughout the Confederacy Oxford, Miss., July 17, 1861.

MARTHA PAIRES,

Administrator's Notice. WHEREAS, letters of administration on the estate m the 7th day of said month, this notice is therefor given requesting all persons having claims against the see her bending over to ask one of the more estate of said decembed, to exhibit the same and have show registered in the manner and within the time presented by law, or they will be forwer harred.

OEO, W. CONLY.

Total tends was presently to be shaved, and to see her bending over to ask one of the more if, a timid and misapplied clomesny is extended by the time and have show registered in the manner and within the time presented by law, or they will be forwer harred.

OEO, W. CONLY.

OEO, W. CONLY.

OEO, W. CONLY.

OEO, W. CONLY. Jyli-lawfur

NOTICE.

In the matter of the final settlement of the cetate of Matilda Price, dec d. J. L. Spicer, Administrator of the extate of Matilda Price, decement the day filed and presented his account of the receipts and disbursements on behalf of said epiate, and moved the Court to receive and allow the same as a final account of his administration. Moreoventh in nutrance of the states. with the same as a final assessment of the administration. Whereupon in pursuance of the statute in this behalf, it is ordered by the Court that and Administrator give notice of the presentation of his final associant by publication of the same in the Appeal, a powerpore published in the town of Greenals, in this state, for four successive weeks, and that citation issue to the ree durit here of vaid outsite to come forward and show cause, if any they can, why said final account above cause, if any they can, why said final account the property of the rest in the Same of the contents itself with lithographs so badly executed that the Varkes cannot attenut to counterfail them. should not be allowed and ordered to record. Issued July 11th, 1801

BY CREE WHILLIAMS, M. D.

The Southern hosts are gathering, over mountain hi and valley, With nerves of steel, and hearts that feel, for all that's dear they rally And soon their glistning ranks will make the base i

SOUTHERN WAR SONG.

For know, vile for | our watchword is, "to conquer We fight for all that's dear to man, our homes, our law.

We tell the beld invaders, 'it's for these alone we fight We draw the sword in freedom's cause to defend on Por this against the Northern hordes we firmly take ou

Strike home upon the dastard for who would you hearths despoil; Strike for your sacred alters, strike and we shall be free o'er land and sea ! ir noble warriors in the fle'd, are ready for the fray, our leaders know, that soon will come, a bright and glorious day

o let us fight, for all that's right, our country and her

Well do the bold invaling foe feel that our struggle's Seventeenth Regiment Louisians Volunteers Col. The God of Battle's on our side, in him we place on H. Richardson.

Twenty-sixth Regiment Louislans Volunteers—Cel. For victory now wreathes our flag and many a bloody Spartan band: Drive them from bill and valley, from mountain and Again the destard Northmen come, to invade our native from pinin. And let no hostile footsteps tread, our giorious soil again. Strategy-General Order-Strategy Hall.

BY ORPHEUS C. KERR. errespondense of the Sunday Mercury.]

The high-minded and chivalrous Confederacy having refused to consider itself worsted in our recent great strategic victory near Paris, my deposits a trendents or nurses in hospi als that if they consider the construction and dealt with an deserters, they will be brought back in brons and dealt with an deserters, and when last I visited the lines, I found a select boy, it only remained for the general of the mack-for the information of those now present on duty, who imay hereaffer present leaves of absence, as well as not ing a spadeful of sacred soil very neatly in my "Well,"my gallant sexion, how do the obse-

"Beautiful," says he, pausing long enough to take a powder which the surgeon had left with fever, and them Peninsula veterans, which you quiet enjoyment, as he climbed into the hospital the night. litter, just sont after him-"really, there's a smart chance of pushing on our cemetery to Richmond before the roads become impassable

I was looking after him, as the bearers carried THE Provost Marshal of the county or parish him off, my boy, when I saw Cautain Villiam where any slave may be arrested together with Brown ambling leisurely toward me on his generated shall constitute a special tr burns for the paper which he held in his right hand, and dis cussing a cantoen in his left. The countenance of the warrior was thoughtful, and his shovel swung listlessly against the charger's thank. "How now, my jack of spades!" says sportively.

Bit. Where any stave has been confermed to death by the tribunal herein established, the crecution of the resistance, except in cases where the vicinity of the energy to lean against a tree, "here is a new proclamation of the resistance, except in cases where the vicinity of the energy to lean against a tree, "here is a new proclamation." tion for the moral refreshment of the United States of America. Read this impartial edick, says Villiam impressively, "and you will find i worthy of the "Union track society."

I took the official parchment, my boy, and found inscribed upon it the following affecting GENERAL ORDER.

WHEREAS, The United States of America now finds himself engaged in an unnatural struggle with the celebrated Southern Confederacy, for the Union which our forefathers planted; an it being our object to show the world that our VI. Provon Marshals are anthorized to use the jable intentions are honorable; it is hereby ordered r prisons of their respective counties, towns or par that the mackeral brigade do take possession o these establishments will be allowed the usual fees for all guns, pistols, and howitzers previously fire their majoralnesses.

VII. All persons owning slaves, or having them in government, keeping strict account of said weapons, in order that their owners may be duly pons, in order that their owners may be duly and amicably paid for them hereafter. It further ordered that persons of mackeral d scent, occupying the cultivated grounds of the aforesaid Southern Confederacy, shall keep stric account of the time spent upon the same, in or der that reasonable rent may be paid for the the same as soon as the United States of America

> By order of the General of the Mackeral Brig-GREEN SEAL VINTAGE OF 1776. Having perused the document with much shall resume specie payment.

"In purity of moral tone, my hero, that pane "1776!" says Villiam, reflectively. " Ah! IV. The Commanding General is assured that many anys Villiam, "it takes strategy to revive recol of the world, that citizen soldiers of Louisiana fall to raily wolunizally to the defense of their liberties and fire-flee, remmanders of troops, provest marshals of parishes, officers of troops, provest marshals of parishes, officers of the militia, civil magistrates, and itself would have been taken, as it has somewhat more roof than the barn, and a little more shade; but when the general of the markerel brigade learned that Washington had once thought of taking a second-mortgage on it, he gave orders that no mackerel should go within half a mile of the front door. On entering Strategy Hall, I beheld a scene calculated to elevate sickness into a virtue, and view of future compensation, where a whole section of the mackerel brigade, in the full retribution for their atrocities. Whether this enjoyment of strategic health. Over each proclamation is more "brutum fulmen," or the chaps head bring his shovel, and a shingle in- expression of a real determination to protect our scribed with his name and address. Thus, the people, awaits practical demonstration. The shingle nearest me read: "Spoony Bill, Hose President has an opportunity afforded him al bathing with ice water the brow of those shiv- combatant citizens butchered-the prayers of ering with the eruel ague, pouring rich grust woman wronged—of age insulted—of plundered over the chin and neck of the nervous sufferor, and resal of good books to the raving and de-Administrator's Notice.

Whereas, letters of administration on the celete of John Goody, decased, were granted to the note that the selection of John Goody, decased, were granted to the node in the July term, A. D. 1802, of the Probate Court of Yalchinsha scanny, State of Mississippi, this the 7th of said metalling that the property of the property invigorated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated and earnest, will designed at the July term, A. D. 1802, of the Probate Court of Yalchinsha scanny, State of Mississippi, this the 7th of said metalling the property of the property invigorated and carried that we are resolute and earnest, will design the property of those described places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated anew. The enemy, while she warmed the water with which his believed head was presently to be shaved; and to design the property of those described places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated anew. The enemy, while she warmed the water with which his believed head was presently to be shaved; and to design the property of those described places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated anew. The enemy, while she has Jy flew to fill the right ear of a dress, the wavering loyalty of those described places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated anew. The enemy of the property invigorated and the places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated anew. The enemy of the property invigorated and the places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated and the places will be reanimated and their devotion to our Confederacy invigorated and the places will be reanimated and the places wil > erel on the opposite rail. "Oh woman! in our hours of ease Uncertain, coy, and hard to picase, And variable as the shade By the light, quivering aspen made: When pain and sagnish wring the brow, A ministering angel thon."

NOT A BAB IDEA.-The Tuscaloosa Observer

the Yankes cannot attempt to counterfeit them of the rise in the thermometer, and calls the state of the rise in the thermometer, and calls the state of the provided and sent to the without the display of superior artistic skill, tention of the provost marshal to the subject, as under any circumstances, be detailed to accept a regiment had the muzzle of his gun plagged up suit to another. The man drew his sword upon six months. "Go or." Butter, "go on!" Your enemy's lines under a flag of truce — him to take him, be saw him effer the same in providing the provided and sent to the subject, as under any circumstances, be detailed to accept a regiment had the muzzle of his gun plagged up J. P. SAMPLE. without the display of which betrays the fraud. a clear case of extertion.

Interesting Particulars. We copy from the Lexington Gazette the fol-

On Wodnesday, the 23d of July, the battalion Valley Rangers, Capt. Lackey, received march-intry being full of Union men. The next morning (24th) the battalion pro- the residium not desiroyed. ceded westward through Greenbrier county, And our banner bright like a gleam of light, shall wave

When we started from camp the Charlotte company was put in front. The second day it came the turn of the Rockbridge company to march in front; but on the morning of the 25th, acted Summersville at little before daylight. The advance guard, composed of an equal numance one at a time. One of the guard replied eign perts. hat it was the Federal cavalry coming in. The entinel insisted for one to advance at a time. The advance guard still approaching, saying it was the Federal cavalry. The sentinel said—"By God, I say, halt or I'll shoot." Just then ur guard put spurs to their horses and were red on several times by the picket. Several balls also passed over the head of the column, proper or unconstitutional in any respect. when it passed by the picket post and through

Before we reached Summersville, Major Bailey quested the command to raise a shout on enme number of men. Half a mile of the road on this side of the town was macadamized, and the noise of the feet of the horses in the charge, the shouting of the soldiers and firing of guns, was enough to wake up the dead.

The column advanced quite through the place of a house where the officers were quartered. The house was entered at once by some of the Rockbridge cavalry, and all the officers aptured. The privates were taken, generally, y the other companies.

After the officers were taken, several soldiers vere examining the room, when one feeling nder a couch, caught the leg of a man, an ooking under, he said, "come out, you scoun Irel." This fellow was Dr. Rucker, late of Aleghany, then provest marshal for Nicholas, and getting into this easy, peace post, funcied and imprediately set about trying to induce the all efforts to deceive us failed. He was soon confiled to the care and keeping of Mr. West patriotic action of the cotton by the patriotic action of the cotton States, by the patriotic action of the cotton States, at highly as I would the present fortunate holders whose property has been so directly appreciated in value by the patriotic action of the cotton by the patriotic action of the cotton burners. I am a citizen of the cotton States, in fully as I would the present fortunate holders whose property has been so directly appreciated in value by the patriotic action of the cotton burners. I am a citizen of the cotton States, in fully as I would the present fortunate holders whose property has been so directly appreciated in value by the patriotic action of the cotton burners. I am a citizen of the cotton States, in the dead men and horses and kentrally anxious to the care will be naturally anxious to the country in the c the matter. He and a captain, two lieutenants in from the porch the following conversation usued between him and the doctor: Colonel-Doctor, the enemy's cavalry are Doctor-What! How many of 'em ? Colonel-A hell mint of them. Doctor-Jesus Christ!

The colonel and doctor had little time for re etion. They soon found themselves in limbo enty privates.

robably as much. that has been during the war. JAMES MCNUTT.

Eindaces to our Enemies is Cruelty to our Friends. ready. Twenty-nine commissioned officers And woman-lovely woman! was there, ad-ministering hot drinks to the fevered head, will be done with them? The blood of non-lirious. A was with a species of holy awe that duty, and throw the arm of the government ment wisch lacks the spirit to punish it

The LaGrange (Ga.) Reporter complains 300,000, and continue till completed. No officer

The Cavalry Exploit in Nicholas County- Burning Cotton-An Interesting Question. A correspondent writing over the signature of 'A Mississippian," has the following suggesowing account of the late expedition into Nichtions on the subject of burning cotton : I desire to call attention to the subject that nder the command of Major R. A. Bailey, of heads this communication. Some further legisthe 22d Virginia regiment, composed of the 24 Rockbridge Dragoons, Capt. Gibson, the Charlotte Cavalry, Capt. Couldin, the Churchville been burnt under existing laws, which promise otte Cavalry, Capt. Cochran, and the compensation to the owner. How is the money whole former in flows into the Tennessee river. valley Mangers, Capi. Lackey, received march ing orders. The command was encamped about we resort to a taxation of some $30,000,000 for allege. fire miles east of Union, Monroe, and about this purpose! I believe a more equitable system place as soon as the enemy's plans were developed.

The purpose I believe a more equitable system place as soon as the enemy's plans were developed.

Factor of the place of the purpose of the place o where the force under Gen. Cook was encamped. cotton burned Exact justice would be meted to Major Bailey crossed the Greenbrier river on the first day, and selected a place to encamp for the night, as cautiously as he could, to keep the enemy from discovering his movements, the the world of the staple, that the destruction of a evening, when we were about to encamp, Major pound, and it is now selling from fifteen to sevn other words, made $15,000. Who shall pay to rest a few hours. the former his loss ! Shall it be the community Mejor Bailey called upon Captain Gibson to draw up his company in front, to lead the charge immediately benefited? Every principle of mmodiately benefited? Every principle of pied in heavy force. ustice says the latter. It is true, that in a na-At about midnight the command moved, and tional point of view, all are benefited, but the position on the ground occupied by Crawford's that the valley is by no means an absolutely do not propose to tax the property of one in-lividual and exclude another, but to tax all the The artillery of the enoperty of the nation of a particular description. Then the Provisional Congress laid an export duty on cotton to pay the interest of a particular debt, we heard no objection to the act as im-

In addition to this, it seems wrong that the non-cotton growing States should be taxed for an act that has immediately and directly benefitted the cotton-holder, "Of him to whom much 6 o'clock, but for an hour and a hall was furned to the cotton-holder, but for an hour and a hall was furned to the cotton-holder, but for an hour and a hall was furned to the cotton-holder. is given shall much be required." When this and uncessing throughout the cannonading, complete in change, while the discipline of these war terminates in our independence, as it must which was at first desultery, and directed mainly hardy sons of the West compares favorably ided to. I never heard such a noise from the war terminates in our independence, as it must do, our taxation must be heavy to pay the pub. against the cavalry. he debt and the current expenditures of the government. We will need for this purpose all the Banks that no attack was apprehended, and that of the three divisions already here, and is a good confiscated property, out of which the planter is no considerable infantry force of the enemy had soldier, and possesses ability of the most sterling

When he was dragged out from under the at headquarters, the colonel arese and went out near my cotton to require the torch. I cannot, into a perch in his night dress to see what was therefore, be charged with sinister motives in making these suggestions. As an act of justice, and Dr. Rucker were together. When he came therefore, let an export tax be levied on cotton sufficient to compensate those who have destroyed theirs, and let this tax, when collected, be appropriated solely to this purpose

Riot in Ohio ... Printing Office Destroyed. Some twelve or lifteen shots were fired at us, chap familiarly known as "Sonny Phillips," right and rear. Monday was spent in burying loing no injury—two men shot shrough their bailing from Utics, a seitlement north of this the dead and getting off the wounded. The ont not mortally wounded. Some of the pristing that no recruits burying of the dead was not completed until you walk along the shore a short distance you cutting it as noder. This prank there were ten or would be furnished from his section by voluntary dark on Monday, the heat being so great that oners that we took said that there were tend to twelve killed. Six or eight men in the hospital enlistment or otherwise, and that he and his twelve killed. Six or eight men in the hospital enlistment or otherwise, and that he and his severe work was not possible.

On Monday night; the enemy fled, leaving making use of some such expressions as the following: "But couldn't I not that butter and seventy-three, were brought to the Sait Sulphur tolerated by the by-standers as long as possible, when he was "moved" up street by a crowd of young mep. When near the court house, he could have he court hou us, and made a most fatiguing march. We turned and began stoning his followers, striking Buford's dispatch. A cavalry and artillery force shot for a feller like meself; " "How quick penetrated into the enemy's country at least one hundred miles in rear of his lines. I doubt very much whether a more daring and dashing feat has been carried through since the war commenced. The enemy had every epportunity to cut us off. We had a most difficult road to pass over.

Buford's dispatch. A cavalry and artillery force under General Buford was immediately thrown forward in pursuit, and followed the enemy to the Rapidan, over which he passed with his rear guard by ten o'clock in the morning. The count us off. We had a most difficult road to pass over.

Buford's dispatch. A cavalry and artillery force under General Buford was immediately thrown forward in pursuit, and followed the enemy to the Rapidan, over which he passed with his rear guard by ten o'clock in the morning. The behavior of General Banks' corps during the count us off. We had a most difficult road to pass over.

Buford's dispatch. A cavalry and artillery force under General Buford was immediately thrown forward in pursuit, and followed the enemy to the Rapidan, over which he passed with his rear guard by ten o'clock in the morning. The behavior of General Banks' corps during the white behavior of General ver.

Suers, he ran into the Billmire House, rushed up daring could be exhibited by any troops. I cannot speak too highly of the casseless intretured articles. Over a hundred Enfield rifles evading his pursuers for a time. After considerpidity of General Banks himself during the ware taken, and as many destroyed by fire.

A close watch was best on the Runder who before a United States commissioner and com-A close watch was kept on Dr. Rucker, who loted the Federal army into Alleghany several mitted to the jail for using seditious language in mand. His example was of the greatest benefit, menths ago. The doctor observing that the strongest expressions against the government, and he merits and should receive the commendation of his government. Generals Williams, there to await instructions from the proper authority. His pursuers, and the attendant crowd major mean by keeping you with me!" Parton were dispersed, but collected again in the even were dispersed, but collected again in the even introduced to the proper authority. His pursuers, and the attendant crowd were dispersed, but collected again in the even were dispersed, but collected again in the even were dispersed, but collected again in the even while "Bull Run" is the general salute. olied: "They think you would like to run, and ing about ten o'clock, and proceeded to the office Augur and Geary were severely wounded, and G-d they know that I will shoot you if you of the Democratic Citizen, Mr. A. R. Van Cisaf, Prince, by losing his way in the dark while I trust that such a state of affairs will not last editor; made an assault upon the building with passing from one flank to the other, fell into the as long, and end as tamely, as everything con-The prisoners generally were pleasant and stones, etc., breaking windows, doors, and all hands of the enemy. I desire publicly to exagreeable. We treated them kindly, and they seemed to be grateful for it.

Among the prisoners there was a lieutenant colonel, one captain, two lieutenants, and seventher was cleared out. During these contents of the enemy. I desire publicly to expression of the enemy are leaving the composition of the composition of the enemy are leaving the composition of the enemy. I desire publicly to expression of the enemy. I desire publicly to expression of the enemy. I desire publicly to expression of the enemy are leaving the composition of the composition of the enemy are leaving the composition of the enemy are olonel, one captain, two lieutenants, and several sides and of the establishment was cleaned out. During these and privates.

The stores destroyed amounted to ten or fifther stores destroyed amounte teen thousand dollars, and property captured to opposition was shown until to-day, when the cavalry of this army, was with the advance of Sequetchie valley, upon this side of the river, Upon the whole, I regard the exploit as one of the most dashing and daving feats of cavalry ple are standing up to the scratch, and a heavy ble aid he rendered to Generals Banks and moved two miles from here, and remained in the stack upon our center the enemy met.

In the attack upon our center the enemy met. In the attack upon our center the enemy met. guard is placed around the jail. Pickets are Crawford. Our loss was about fifteen hundred line of battle two hours. that his friends may attempt the rescue, or fire portions of the town. The Democratic Citizen was an ardent supporter of Vallandigham, and was an ardent supporter of Vallandigham, and was a captain in the rebel closed about eight o'clock, but an effective can-ad court for the trial of numerous civilians of he vicinity accused of shooting the Yankee chets. They had condemned quite a number be hung-among them master Charley Ridey, a youth of sixteen, entirely innecent of the fense charged, but a most acceptable victim, Ridley, a citizen of Jasper county, in this State, tion, ing on, the distant thunder of the tramp of cav-alry attracted the attention of the "honorable the rebels." adjourned the tribunal with more dispatch than ceremony. The provest marshal, who, in a few minutes, would have been treathis heels, and the happy escaped sevup a shout of deliverance that made the welkin ring. What a lucky arrival for them .- Mucon (Ga.

Volunteering in Pennsylvania. paid bounty, etc., until September 1st. Monday, in no way affects the main result of the interview.

BATTLE OF CEDAR CREEK.

Official Report of the Federal Commander. HEADQUARTERS ARMY LT VIRGINIA CEDAR MOUNTAIN, August 13-5 P.M. )

To Major-General Halleck, Commander in Chief : Rapidan at Barnet's Ford in heavy force, and the Cumberland and Raccoon mountains. Battl necessary for this object to be procured ! Must whole force on the turnpike between Culpepper The whole of Buell's camp lies immediate Early on Friday it because apparent that the seariver, bounded upon the east by the Raccoor

The next morning (24th) the battalion prothe residum not destroyed.

Before we commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county.

Before we commenced the destruction, the service commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county, some commenced the destruction, the seeded westward through Greenbrier county. Balley received intelligence that a force of about entern ceuts. Probably 1,000,000 bales, worth ing and embarrassing the enemy's advance as faded Rasselas. one hundred and fifty Federal troops were sta-cone hundred at Summersville, the shire of Nicholas consumed, and the actual increase in value of Banks and Sigel, and one of the county. Before this I know not where he was been less than $60,000,000. Two planters, liv.

divisions of McDowell's corps, were rapidly Gan. Buell. From the major-general in comcentrating at Calpepper during Friday and mand, to the colonels of the respective regiments and he determined to attack Summersville early | ing in the same county, have raised—the one 100 | Saturday night, Banks' corps being pushed for | a different policy is being vigorously pursued the next morning, which was about nine miles bales, valued at $5000; the other, 300 bales ward five miles south of Culpepper, with Rick- The army for the last four weeks has been on cotton holder receives a larger additional benefit | brigade of his command, which had been thrown | healthy situation for a large body of men, our unknown to the community at large. Lat Con. out the day previous to observe the enemy's troops were never in the possession of such uni-The advance guard, composed of an equal number of men from each command, kept a faw hundred yards in front. When the guard approached within thirty yards of the Federal pickets, it was halted, and commanded to advance one at a time. One of the guard replied eight posts. Let the community at targe. Lat Consider the advance of the enemy should be a federal possession of such line of the enemy being tendered me by the surgeous of regiments. The regiments are all on the increase, occasioned by the return of those who have been absent on turbough. New elothes, regulation hats, etc. I need not be told that this is class legislation. after their forced march, and to bring forward all have been provided for all the regiments, on-

Cedar Mountain, the sides of which they occu- ties of animal food.

The artillery of the enemy opened early in the afternoon, but he made no advance until nearly five o'clock, at which time a few skirmishers were thrown forward on each side.

Therefore, taking everything into consideration, Buell's army were in never so fine condition as at the present time. The regiments are under cover of the heavy woods in which his all fuller than they were before Corinth; the tions. Were it possible I would tax these trait- fore this change could be effected it was quite the situation before Corinth, as persons upon town was thrown into quite a high state of ex- rest and recruit the whole day, our only active the middle of the river with a newspaper in his communication between Gordonaville and this slaughter was severe on both sides. Most of the rate.

I had continued to receive reports from Gen.

news was received that Phillips' friends were our forces, on Friday and Saturday, and was distant about six miles, and drove in our pickets placed upon the several roads, in apprehension killed, wounded and missing, of whom twenty- A Mrs. Bastic, who resides in this neighbor enemy's loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, service. Mr. Bosticowns a large plantation, and nonade was kept up until nearly midnight. Be- more congenial to their feelings than an associwe are now satisfied, is much in excess of our about-forty sinves. In this vicinity are twelve sides the guns and other ordinance captured, our about-forty sinves. In this vicinity are twelve sides the guns and other ordinance captured, our ation with loyal persons. In pursuances of the own. A full list of casualties will be transmit- houses, the male recidents of which are all abng his forced cavalry march upon Murfrees- tad as soon as possible, together with a detailed soro', the enemy at that place, all unconscious report, in which I shall endeavor to do justice Mrs. Bostic has informed many of the officers. On Sun lay morning our forces were drawn up make the proper disposal of them, according to [Signed] JOHN POPE, Major-General Commanding.

Lincoln on Emancipation. ispatch to the Associated Press, North ] colonise people of African descent, thereby ties, in this portion of Tennesce, are almost in- tant shortly found himself among his triends, art," and in a few minutes the sharp report making it his duty, as it has been for a long credible. musketry and the terrified cry of " the rebels, time his inclination, to favor that course. This

> The Washington correspondent of the THE PRESIDENT AND NEGRO REGIMENTS.

The attempt is making to discredit the well-HARRISBURGE, Pa., August 14.-From the suthenticated statement, that the Presiden army is watching with intense solicitude the course which President Davis pursues, and, as others forming rapidly. By order of the Secretary of the road which present in the field during the week, and the course which President Davis pursues, and, as others forming rapidly. By order of the Secretary of the road which runs to Dallary on the road it is weak or wise, will continue their outrages of the road which runs to Dalton, and resterday tary of War, Governor Curtin orders that after the sort. The sole point in the newspaper controversy here between a Senator and a correst the lower transaction which would actually do A NEW On the people that the Almighty may impart Jackregiments, but only to volunteers to new pondent, one of your own correspondents, is more to break "the backbone" of the regiments, but only to volunteers of regiments, is more to break "the backbone" of the rebellion ment, a Southern efficient from New Orleans.

There have been occasional skirmishes since the result of the respective to the result of the result.

There have been occasional skirmishes since the result of the result of the result of the result. ays:

The North conducts its exchanges by means his faith if it falters, and hold up his hands and pleted regiments are to be consolidated. Volun
The North conducts its exchanges by means his faith if it falters, and hold up his hands and pleted regiments are to be consolidated. Volun
The North conducts its exchanges by means his faith if it falters, and hold up his hands and pleted regiments are to be consolidated. Volun
The North conducts its exchanges by means his faith if it falters, and hold up his hands and pleted regiments are to be consolidated. Volunsteady his knees if they are feeble, for the duty toers to fill old regiments will be received and that sort was made, but this point, at any rate, by a Minnie ball, fired by the enemy.

FROM GEN. BURLL'S ARMY. selal Correspondence of the Philadelphia Press !

CAMP NEAR BATTLE CHEER, FIVE MILES HAST OF BRIDGEPORT A large pertion of Gen. Buell's fine army encamped here, in an exquisite valley bordering On Thursday morning the enemy crossed the upon the Tennessee river, and situated between move on Madison Court House was merely a range of mountains. The scenery of the valley foint to deceive the army corps of General Signl, is delightful—at intervals shaded by groves of at Sperryville, and that the main attack of the oaks and other trees of a stordy character, freshgreatly increased. So have are the markets of the world of the staple, that the destruction of a million of bales has fully doubled the price of million of bales has fully doubled the price of Dowell's corps.

valued at $15,000. The former burnt his and thus lost $5000, while the latter has, by this very burning, doubled the value of his crop, or, in other words, made $15,000. Who shall pay to rest a few hours. On Saturday the enemy advanced rapidly to tion of mutton, vention, vent, and other luxu-

Notwithstanding the neighbors tell us that General Banks was instructed to take up his this is the most unhealthy month of the year, and came general. With unsurpassed bravery, our Hudson and through the Mohawk valley to this abling them to present a clean and soldierly ap-forces were concealed. The enemy praced for men composing them possess superb fighting ward a strong force in the rear of his skirmishers, qualities and powers of endurance, having had experience at Belmont, Donelson, Shiloh, and The engagement did not fairly open until after Corinth, and know no such word as fall; the gave way, pursued him vigorously to within two show that the government is in samuest-terriory 6 o'clock, but for an hour and a halt was furious tout ensemble of officers and men is new and miles of Culpeper Court House. with that of the regular army. Major-Gen. McCook is at present in commun promised payment for his burned cotton; and if so paid, will to that extent exhaust our means and increase our taxation. It should not be expected that government should so legislate as to confer by its acts a great benefit on a particular class without exacting some compensation in reduced that many of our citizens have acted with noble particular in a nanylying the torch to their only its acts and property, out of which the planter is no considerable infantry force of the enemy had strong intrenchments of the most sterling character. Gen. Buell and staff are expected in a few days. As a proof that he is already pursuing a different policy. I am happy to inform you that no property is protected here whatever and that he inconsequence fell back a mile or on a particular class without exacting some compensation in reduced the support Gen. Banks, and directed Gen. Rickett's division to support Gen. Banks, and directed Gen. Sigel to bring his men on the ground as soon as possible. I arrived personally on the particular incomplication of the court house expected in a few days. As a proof that he is already pursuing a different policy. I am happy to inform you that no property is protected here whatever. Our loss in this battle and that he is already pursuing a different policy. I am happy to inform you that no property is protected here whatever. Our loss in this battle enemy had atrong intrenchmants of that the enemy had atrong intrenchmants of that the enemy had that the e patriotism in applying the torch to their only field at 7 P. M., and found the action raging fu-means of support. Let them know that their riously. The infantry five was incessant and most satisfactory proofs of loyalty to become the enemy at very high prices-prices paid in being directed to change their position from the our men are in communication at all times with a prisoner, he would know how to treat prisview and sight of the flames on adjoining plants. right, and mass themselves in the center. Bethe rebels. The scene is more remantic than oners. couch by Mr. James Wetbers, he surrendered, and immediately set about trying to induce the belief that he was on the Confederate side. But all efforts to deceive us failed. He was soon to the places where the river can hear plainty every were this may not be, I would the present fortunate holders. Those having friends or relatives who were in this may not be, I would the present fortunate holders at night by the 2d and 5th Maine batteries, in other, expensally in some places where the river of Cedar Creak will be naturally anxious to learn whither the research of the surrendered, and immediately set that he was not the full extent of the gold tecsived; but as this side of the river can hear plainty every word of couvernation. Those having friends or relatives who were in this may not be, I would the present fortunate holders. When the noise of the cavalry was first heard but the enemy has not approached sufficiently broken gun carriages of the enemy's batteries, tobel Halm's cavalry, many of the men upon tion we could obtain, we feel convinced that Playd county, that Cero Gordo Walliams was at which had advanced against it.

Our troops rested on their arms during the night, in line of battle, a heavy shelling being kept up on both sides until midnight. At day, light next menmig, the enemy fell back two was sent to be very well aware of the fact that our carried to the recently brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey samey and defaut than are our men. The enemy light next menmig, the enemy fell back two was sent to be very well aware of the fact that our carried to the recently brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey samey and defaut than are our men. The enemy light next menmig, the enemy fell back two was sent to be very well aware of the fact that our carried to the recently brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey same to be very well aware of the fact that our carried to the recently brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey same to be behind with another than the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey same to be behind with another than the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey same than the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that Hamphrey same than the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far off, and that the rest of his brigade was scattered at different points not far each side being intimately acquainted. Every such of the wounded as had families in this city that place on Tauraday last, with 1500 men; light next merming, the enemy fell back two miles from our front and still higher up the mountain. Our pickets at once advanced and have planty to spare!" Both parties exchange The trains from Gardonsville, on the Central from long marches and excessive heat, made it impossible for either side to resume the action on Sunday. The men were therefore allowed to the exchange is noted, each party swimming to We mention merely pointing their guns at rebel objects, stereotyped expressions: "How is all our Yankee friends to day?" "How much did with those twenty thousand prisoners that Halto cross this river ! " How long do you ex-while "Bull Run" is the general salute.

sent, most of them being in the schol service. kees. here that her husband was a Union man, but in line of battle, and as General Jackson rode their merits or demerits. Gen. Campbell left entered the Confederate ranks voluntarily to past, the cheers of the men were most enthusias. Nashville on Monday last to carry out the labor avoid being pressed, and to insure the safety of tic. There was some firing early in the morning. of his mission.

who were in pursuit of the retreating enemy. It

It will be a most difficult march, as we have tion in respect to the part borne by Ewell's divi- extreme. A part of Ewell's division led in the many obstacles on our route. But Gen. Buell sion, on the right, save that the action of the attack, which was subsequently reinforced by a has the men and means. His troops are in good troops was marked by conspicuous gallastry. order, and only too willing to acquiesce in any vigorous movement which may be resolved upon by those in command. Once in possession of Chattanooga, which the policeman and got away. - Memphis Bulletin, time will come .- Mobile News.

The Bastle of Mitchell's Station.

hmond Bhquirer, 19th. From Lieut John H. Thomas, company C. of Urica, New York, August 7, 1862 —I am pleased with the outspoken course of your paper. army, who reached this city by the Central train and with the well-aimed blows it gives the relat-above the railroad, and having advanced a mile into Culpeper county, encamped for the night.

Early on Saturday morning, the enemy's cavities of Saturday morning, the enemy's cavities wicked rebellion. I owe them a debt of gradiforce was drawn up in line of battle, but no attack being made, in several hours they were or of their hell-born Confederacy, upon thirty-siz dered to march toward Culpeper Court House, hours notice, to the meantime several other of our bridgades I have canvassed the entire North, and I have and erossed the Rapidan.

to said on the west side of the Orange and Alex- dition of the Northern mind. There is a settled andris railroad. About four o'clock the enemy's purpose on the part of the Northern people, and urtillary, posted near Mitchell's station, six the loyal men of the Northwest, to crash out the miles distant from the Rapidan, opened fire upon | rebellion, at any and every cost of men, money ip, a terrible artitlery tight, of two hours' dors. loyal States have wowed, and their decree has on the whole division, which it required the nt- this government shall never be divided, and that most efforts of the brigade, regimental and com- this country shall never know but one govern-

Between six and seven e'clock our infantry United States. troops held their own, and in parts of the field | proportion of them will be in the field even drove the enemy before them at the point the sanguinary battles before Richmond, have he had not ordered a draft for half a million.

since said that they never before saw the Yankees fight with such obstinate desperation. the tide in our favor. After a brief show of fur- of war, is in the newspapers and the rattie ex her resistence, the enemy gave way at all points, drum and fife at recruiting stations. True, true-A. P. Hill's division, coming up as the enemy war purposes at various points-all going to

It was confidently stated on the streets yester-day that our troops had entered and still held Cuipeper Court House, but from the best informatieu we can obtain, we are inclined to believe tance mentioned or the court house, discover-

Our loss in this battle is estimated at sight | their services ! Lieut. Mann Page, of this city, adjutant of an ultra Abelitionist. This is the contemptible

the twenty-first Virginia regiment, was taken scamp who preached the sermon at Gallatin, in less patriotic or mere fortunate neighbors, are to pay a tax upon property of the same kind, which has been doubled in value, as a compensation to himself. Some few cotton planters (thank heaven but few) have meanly sold their cotton to the same has been doubled to the most fivial of kindnesses.

In found Gen. Banks holding the position of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and returned to his enemy, successed in the fight of the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of several miles upon and returned to his enemy, successed the most trivial of kindnesses.

Our troops do picket duly by brigade, our lines occupying a distance of s railroad will arrive in this city about daylight citement last evening, by the capture of a neisy operation being that of eavalry on the enemy's mouth. An exchange of coffee and tobacco is city had been, on Monday, cut of by a breakn which, the wire was cut. As a troop train From our side there were perhaps twenty shots. Three men were killed that I know of, one of the government's action regard to the coming draft, expressing his sympathy and another seriously wounded. Some of the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded. Some of the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded. Some of the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded. Some of the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy wounded the roles are roles and declaring that no recruits the sympathy was severe on both sides. Most of the wire was cut. As a troop train in which, the wire was cut. As a troop train town, denounced the soldiers fired his rifle and the wire was cut. As a troop train in which, the wire was cut. As a troop train town, denounced the soldiers fired his rifle and the wire was cut. As a troop train town, denounced the was severe on both sides. Most of the wire was cut. As a troop train town, denounced the was severe on both sides. Most of the wire was cut. As a troop train the wire was cut. As a troop train town, denounced the was severe on both sides. Most of the wire was cut. As a troop train t cutting it asunder. This prank might have

Yesterday the line had been repaired, and was working wall.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS. From the Richmond Dispatch, We are enabled, through the politeness of an her officer who participated in the battle, I sy before our readers some further incidents. Gen. Winder commanded the division whi neamped the other side of the Rapiday, takir ion, which constituted the right, about 1 P. M. The engagement had already been opened by Ewell's artillery. The 2d brigade, commanded der counties of Wayne, Logan, McDowell, by Lieutenant-Colonel Garnett, was placed on Buchanan, Wise, etc. A prominent Kentucky rders. The cannonade soon became very county the other day, that the rebels would in a ed frequently to lay down to avoid the shell, which rained heavily among the ranks. They had are in sore need of protection from the horrible scarcely reached their position when the enemy's succeeded in turning our left flank, when, at hands of Governor Johnson. He is empowered but no engagement took piace, the enemy de-Large numbers of the Union citizens of this clining to reply, although in sight. WASHINGTON, August 14.—The President county come into our camps, and we derive very gave audience to a committee of colored men valuable information from such sources. What arm on Saturday evening, and Lieutenant Alexnasmuch as he was the son of Broomfield L. introduced by the commissioners of emigration is still better, large numbers refuse to leave our ander, of the Irish battalion, was wounded. But turned to St. Louis Sunday night. We are infew of the casualties in the battle have yet been formed that he stated that all the preliminaries. of Teamessee, whose brother, Dr. Charles L. views on their present and prospective condiresiding a few miles east of Jasper, and drill and his horse killed under him: Adjutant Manu prisoners confined in Camp Donglas, and that it well known to many of our readers. While the estimate and convictions were going on, the distant thunder of the tramp of caverage and the transport of the "honorable" but his captor was killed while threatening to soldier's life. Their stories of rebel's brains out," and the adjustment, was taken prisoners confined in Camp Douglas, and that is three times a day. They draw rations, and sub-place within ten days—Chrage but his captor was killed while threatening to Journal, 13th.

The President made a lengthy speech. He would take place within ten days—Chrage but his captor was killed while threatening to Journal, 13th.

MORE PRISONERS.

or to protect its friends. The whole Tankee and one is a most important point, our forces, or a portant point point, our forces, or a portant point point, our forces, or a portant point poin being conveyed through the streets of that city the fight of Saturday, but they resulted in to the Parish prison. He was marching along nothing of a serious character. arefooted, under guard, when two of his civilian yesterday morning, we have received some par- leaders in this infernal rebellion. I have inculars of the engagement at Mitcheil's station, tended for some time to write you a cummunica-tion for publication, but I have not had the time. on Friday evening, a portion of Gen. Jackson's tion for publication, but I have not had the time.

Letter from the Traitor Brownlow. Editor of the Nuchville Union :

On Friday evening, a portion of Gen. Jackson's nor have I time now. I have been speaking for livision, consisting of the lat, 2d, and 3rd brig- four months to crowded houses ranging at fiveades, under the command of Gen. Charles C. hundred to five thousand, and usually about two Winder, crossed the Rapidian river, a few miles hours. I am, therefore, randering the Confedalry drove in our pickets and fired into our tade for their imprisoning me, suppressing the camp. Expecting an immediate attack, our publication of my paper, estring upon my town.

spoken to more than one hundred thou and per-Our men advanced by roads running parallel sous, taking great pains to learn the actual conour advance guard. Our batteries having come | and blood. The great body of the people of the on, ensued. Early in this engagement Gen been ratified in Heaven, that none but the han-vinder was struck by a fragment of shell and ner of glory and beauty, known as the "stars cilled. The effect of the death of this brave of and stripes," shall ever float over any State in the cill United States. They have sworn that ment, and that shall be the government of the

were ordered forward, and the engagement be- I have spoken in all the large towns on the for nearly an hour, fought against almost city, and I am pleased to assure you that five verwhelming numbers. We had but between call of Governor Morgan, in response to the our and five thousand men, whilst the enemy President's 300,000 demand of volunteers, is had at least lifteen thousand. Still, our gallant | responded to with alacrity, and soon New York's

The recent order of a draft by the President f the bayonet. The instances of individual and | for 300 000 more meets with the enthusiastic regimental valor were innumerable. Officers approval of old and young in all directions, and who participated in this fight, and who were in the only regrets I have heard expressed are, that The men taken from these Northern and Middie States are not even missed by these States. When the battle was at its fisicent, General Everything is prosperous; crops are abundant; Ransom brought reinforcements, which turned money is plenty; and the only evidence one acra and retreated hurridaly. A portion of General | dad monsters are building, and transports for

I have nothing to diaguise, Mr. Editor, in regard to this informal rebellion. I am for crushing it out, no matter at what cost. I am for ubjugation, coercion and extremination, if these hat General Hill, on arriving within the short measures are necessary to put down the rebeltion, and sustain the government of the United intex. I know the origin of the rebellion, and with heavy seign guns mounted at that point, I know the originators; and nothing short of an d-fashioned orthox bell, that burns with fire and brimstone, will reward them adequately for

This is the city where General Halleck was orn, and from whence he started out. This is also where Rev. Joseph Cross used to figure as W. G. BROWSLOW.

rom the Louisville Journal, August 14.1 We have just conversed with a highly intelligent centleman, a citizen of Pilseton, in Pike terent points not far off, and that Hamphray yd county, on Big Sandy. The two rebel rigades were supposed to number six or eight nom branch There was a shirmish at Piketon on Monday last work between some of the hone greatly and a greatly superior force of guerrillas, another on Tuesday near that place, and a third on county. At Piketon the home guards numbered only sixty-five, but drove out the rebels ou nine rebel dead bodies were found on the scene of conflict. Subsequently, however, the rebels mustered in much stronger force, and our guards retreated from Piketon. On Wednesday, at Peter creek, nine home guards were killed, and a considerachle number of guerrillas. The guards at that point, number ng only seventy men, twice defeated the rebein to the number 150, but the strength of the latter being increased by reinforcements to 300 the guards retreated. At Piketon the rebels, after the refrest of the home guards, robbed our informant of property armed the left of our line, of which the 1st and | worth from three to five thousand do'lars, as-I brigades were a part. On Friday night they took from other Union men the whole of their steck, etc. Among the guerrilla leaders were hey heard the sound of cannon about twelve fee was afterward seen driving off a drove of stock a mile long toward the Virginia line. Our informant says there was a general uprising, for the invasion of Kentucky, to the Virginia bore extreme left, and there held to await further rebel of Williams' brignde claimed in Fike few days be 30,000 strong on this side of the Virginia line, but this was probably an idle beast. Indoubtedly our friends in Eastern Kentucky depredations of guerrillaism, and undoubtedly with still less success—they were not only re-pulsed, but driven back to their original posi-still disloyal will be exchanged for our loyal fel-

We are informed that H. W. Friedley, United States Army, was in the city on Sunday last

THE FIGHT IN CULPEPER -The Lynchburg I hope soon to witness great activity in this is believed that the few Confiderates captured fight on Saturday is said to have been on the Republican states that the exact locality of the portion of A. P. Hill's division, the whole numbering about ten thousand, against about filteen A train left Gordonsville for Richmond yester-day afternoon with 120 prisoners, including two are not definitely ascertained, but are supposed > perate resistance, leaving the ground covered with arms and ordnance stores. We took no A NEW ORLEANS ITEM .- Legat. D'Apron- artiflery, the enemy having succeeded in genting

> > The enemy fell back to the waighborhood of Whig, 14th.